This major heritage conservation day is FREE to attend

The event is designed for everyone in the historic buildings, landscape conservation and heritage sectors. Owners, guardians, volunteers and professionals from all sectors are welcome

Right at the heart of the event is the highly comprehensive exhibition where you will meet experts in all aspects of the upkeep, care, repair, conservation, maintenance, preservation and restoration of historic buildings (both interior and exterior), historic landscapes, parks and gardens, private and commercial.

There will be live demonstrations of practical skills and conservation techniques.

Burton Agnes Hall

This year's Historic Houses National AGM will mark the start of their 50th anniversary celebrations.

Established as an association in 1973, Historic Houses plans to kick start a year-long programme of anniversary-themed celebrations and events at their AGM held alongside the Historic Buildings, Parks and Gardens Event (HBPGE).

The event will be attended by hundreds of members and other stakeholders from across the heritage sector.

Look around the comprehensive exhibition

Exhibitors have specialist knowledge of repair, conservation, maintenance and preservation of historic buildings, their contents, historic landscapes, and parks and gardens, both private or commercial.

Meet the experts

The SPAB will be running an Advice Surgery. The Victorian Society, London Gardens Trust, Professional Gardeners Guild, The Gardens Trust, The Churches Conservation Trust and many specialist organisations, suppliers and professionals are on hand to help with all aspects of historic buildings, landscape and heritage conservation. From traditional, to cutting edge technology.

View live demonstrations and listen to short talks

Held throughout the day, experts will demonstrate practical skills, conservation techniques and give short talks on a wide range of issues relating to the conservation of historic buildings including contents and landscape conservation.

Listen to the Historic Houses President's address*

Enjoy talks and panel discussions from their guest speakers at the Savills lecture and the Historic Houses awards presentation.

The Collections Award, Restoration Award, Garden of the Year Award, Frances Garnham Award and Sustainability Award
