

Exclusive tours and stays

Go behind closed doors to hundreds of Britain's most fascinating private historic houses. From medieval moated manor houses to pillared Palladian piles, our tours are an invitation to view places that don't normally open to the public.

- ◆ Owner-guided tours
- ◆ Small, friendly groups
- ◆ Delicious refreshments
- ◆ Experiences start from £10

Discover and book at: historichouses.org/tours

You can even stay the night in some of our member houses. For a four-poster bed & breakfast, visit: historichouses.org/stays

Help us protect Britain's independent heritage

Historic Houses is a not-for-profit cooperative association of over one thousand of Britain's most historic independently owned houses, castles and gardens. Our mission is to help owners keep these places safe for the future, for the benefit of everyone.

The support of our members allows us to:

- ◆ Provide technical advice, expert guidance and training
- ◆ Highlight the importance of heritage for employment, well-being and sustainability
- ◆ Help houses generate income to pay for vital conservation and restoration

Membership

Over fifty thousand people are already supporting Historic Houses as members and enjoying Britain's best heritage homes and gardens for free.

With hundreds of places, you're never far away from a stunning mansion, glorious garden or impressive castle that you can visit with your membership card.

Prices start from £56 a year. Membership helps our vital work and is a great-value way to enjoy a day out. You will receive your passes within minutes of joining.

In addition, members receive:

- ◆ An annual handbook containing a comprehensive list of places to visit or stay
- ◆ A quarterly magazine revealing the past and present of our historic homes
- ◆ Access to exclusive member-only private tours
- ◆ Special offers and deals from other organisations

Why join?

We're beautiful

Do you love art and architecture? Our houses are masterpieces in themselves, and contain some of the country's most important collections of art and artefacts.

We're lived in

Do you value living connections to the past? Our houses aren't dusty museums, they're lived-in family homes, still shaped by their owners.

We're diverse

Do you want to discover new places and get off the beaten track? From grand palaces to hidden manor houses, our collection ranges from the Norman conquest to the nineteen sixties.

We're local

Have you explored your area? With places to visit for free all over the UK, including over two hundred in England and almost fifty in Scotland, make sure you see your local heritage.

Save money, support the Historic Houses Foundation

Enter the code below when you sign up to qualify for a discounted membership price, and we'll make a matching donation to the Historic Houses Foundation, helping to protect special places for the future.
